

BECKER WILL GET RETRIAL; REPORT IN ALBANY NOW

DISTRICT ATTORNEY HAS SO NOTIFIED GOVERNOR WHITMAN. IT IS SAID.

JUSTICE FORD REOPENS CASE

Almost Certain Mass of Evidence Can Not Be Digested By Friday.

Albany, N. Y., July 28.—Supreme Court Justice Ford will undoubtedly grant Police Lieutenant Becker a new trial. Information of this character was conveyed to Governor Whitman over the telephone from New York city and it was said on reliable authority that District Attorney Perkins was his informant.

That the governor is inclined to do anything that Justice Ford asks in the way of staying the judgment of execution until the latter has had time to consider the testimony of the witnesses named in Becker's affidavits, it is learned. It is expected here that Justice Ford will call these witnesses.

Governor Whitman is disinclined to discuss the case and would not even comment upon the report that a new trial is to be granted Becker.

Becker May Testify.

New York, July 28.—Charles Becker's motion for a new trial was not decided Tuesday nor is it considered likely that the verdict will be rendered today.

Justice John J. Ford, on whose decision rests Becker's last chance for another opportunity to prove his innocence of the murder of Herman Rosenthal for which the courts have ordered him to die this week and Warden Osborne has set the time for 5:45 a. m. Friday, has locked himself up in his private chamber. On the desk in front of him are a forty-eight page typewritten brief written by District Attorney Perkins and an eighteen page brief by W. Bourke Cockran, chief of Becker's counsel. To one side is a weighty mass of affidavits filed by Mr. Cockran and the district attorney, besides about fifty legal reference books with decisions bearing on the Becker case at every angle.

Justice Ford may yet decide that it is advisable for him to hear the makers of the affidavits on the witness stand and if he directs this Becker himself would be one of the first to be summoned. Others who made affidavits in support of the new trial motion who would probably be called are Harford Marshall, Benjamin Kaufman, for twenty years an intimate of Rosenthal, Joseph Murphy, serving a term in Sing Sing for second degree murder; Louis Harris, alias Dan the Dude; Harry Appelbaum, for years secretary of the late Big Tim Sullivan; Father Curry of St. James' church, and many others.

GERMANS TAKE 3,319 RUSS

Attempting to Push Back Troops Crossing Narew River Is Repulsed.

Berlin, July 28.—(Via London).—The official statement says:

"An attack from Mitau was repulsed. Following the repulse, the Russian attempts to push back our troops advancing across the Narew river by a great simultaneous attack from the line of Górowo (east of Rozan), Wyszkiw and Sorok (south of Pultusk) completely failed. We captured 3,319 Russians and thirteen machine guns."

HEEDS LUSITANIA WARNING

Submarine Commander Enables Leelanaw Crew to Escape.

Washington, July 28.—Consul General Skinner at London reported that the captain of the American steamer Leelanaw had stated to the American consular agent at Kirkwall that ample time was given him and his crew to leave the vessel before being fired on, that the crew went on board the German submarine and their boats were taken in tow for fifty miles before they were landed.

Hugh Coffey, Alfred Inglow and Richard Studd of Dubuque spent yesterday here, returning home in the evening. All are linemen for the Western Union Telegraph Co. and have charge of the lines along the I. C. tracks.

Charles Schade and Lee Shottenkirk of Ashton spent last evening in Dixon.

Mrs. James N. Sterling returned last evening from a visit in Chicago.

Concert, Dance And Reception Are Postponed

Inclement Weather Prevents This Evening's Entertainments For Soldiers

Because of the decidedly inclement weather, the muddy condition of the roads to Camp Dunne and the prospects of more rain this evening, the concert by the Third regiment band, which was to have been given at the Nachusa Tavern veranda, and the reception for the officers of the regiment which was to have been tendered by the Dixon Chamber of Commerce at the Elks' club have been called off.

Should the weather prove favorable the concert and reception will be held tomorrow evening, definite announcement of which will be made in tomorrow's Telegraph. If the conditions are such as to make it not too inconvenient for the band men to get to the city the concert will be given tomorrow evening.

The military dance which was to have been given in the Armory this evening by Company G has also been postponed until tomorrow evening, because of the inability of the soldier boys to get to the city. The dance will be given tomorrow evening.

GRADUATES OF STRONG COLLEGE IN CONCERT

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM WAS ONE OF UNUSUAL MERIT

LARGE ORCHESTRA WAS FEATURE

The Family theatre was the scene of a very brilliant concert Tuesday evening given by the graduating class of the Strong College of Music. The stage was very handsomely decorated with ferns and flowers and the large orchestra and graduating class were arranged in tiers which made a very imposing appearance. The orchestra was composed largely of stringed instruments, with the brass instruments subdued which gave a decided orchestral effect to the beautiful numbers. The large body of violinists were trained until the playing sounded as one instrument.

The program opened with Liszt's Love Song by the orchestra, which was followed by March Militaire by Misses Gladys Kenaga, Dorothy Lantz, Rubie Phillips and Bessie Sworn. Misses Helen Plein and Ruth Morris made their debut in violin solos accompanied by a portion of the orchestra. These young players did remarkably well. Misses Elma Hands, Esther Ferguson, Avis Swartz and Enid Wicher gave a double piano number with excellent effect, also Misses Nora Gottel, Ethel Flanagan, Alta Naylor and Christina Plein in a march which was rendered faultlessly. The young artist, Miss Alice Coppins, gave the Serenade by Drlia in a manner that surprised the audience. This was followed by another double piano number by Misses Helen Cramer, Isabel Fry, Mrs. Charles Hennessy and Edward

MESSAGE REACHED COAST 39 HOURS LATE

WESTERN RIDERS LOST MORE TIME IN TRANSCONTINENTAL RELAY

Ed Hawkins, Harry Sawyer, and Geo. Heutaskel were about the only ones who gained any time on the schedule of the motorcycle relay race across the country last week.

The riders rode into San Francisco at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when they should have landed there at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, making them just 39 hours late. The relay from Sterling west also saved a little time, but the only real gain of importance was made by the three.

Their performance was a wonderful one when it is considered that they were called at the hotel shortly after midnight the morning of the start, and then sat in the street until after 7 o'clock before the message reached them.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED WHEN STRIKERS AT BAYONNE OIL PLANT FIGHT WITH GUARDS

STORMING OIL PLANT WALL. STRIKERS ASSEMBLING FOR ATTACK

Photos by American Press Association.

For several days violence raged about the great plant of the Standard Oil company at Bayonne, N. J. Several men were shot to death in clashes between the strikers and their sympathizers and the armed guards of the company. In the accompanying illustration is shown a group of strikers and their friends storming the ten foot concrete wall of the plant, behind which guards of the company were concealed. In this sortie the rifles of the guards were fired, and after the skirmish the ground around resembled a battlefield. There also is shown a group of strikers and their friends getting ready for another raid on the plant.

JUDGE BAUME BACK ON CIRCUIT BENCH

THERE WILL BE THREE JUDGES ON FIFTEENTH CIRCUIT HEREAFTER.

The June term of the circuit court in Carroll county was adjourned on Saturday by Judge Heard for the term, says the Mt. Carroll Democrat. Judge Heard will not be here again, it is thought, until the June term next year, as Judge Baume is again on the circuit bench, making three judges instead of two to take care of the work of the five counties. Each county has three terms a year, making fifteen terms a year, or five terms for each judge which would get them into each county once a year. There will be but two reporters, Oscar Heard of Freeport and Gus Gossman of Dixon, and they will alternate, as they have time. Judge Baume, it is understood, will not appoint a reporter, as it would make the position in this district a light one, which no good reporter would care for.

ADDRESSED TO OLD CO. OFFICIAL

Letter Received at County Clerk's Office Was To C. H. Gardner

A letter addressed to Charles H. Gardner, County Clerk, Lee Co., was received at the county clerk's office this morning from the Elgin hospital. The peculiar part of the address is in the fact that Mr. Gardner was the county clerk 35 years ago but has not been connected with the office since that time.

MAYOR THOMPSON IS HOME NOW

Chicago Executive Passed Through Dixon in Special Car Today.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago and other city officials passed through Dixon this morning at about 5:40 o'clock in a special car attached to the Northwestern Overland Limited train. They had gone to the Exposition at San Francisco several days ago to participate in the festivities planned for Chicago day, on Tuesday of this week, but the exercises were called off because of the Eastland disaster in the Chicago river Saturday morning.

Attorney and Mrs. H. S. Dixon returned Tuesday from their tour in the east.

KICK BY HORSE WAS FATAL TO AMBOYITE

FRANK EDSALL WAS KILLED BY HORSE HE WAS DOCTORING AT UPPER ALTON.

STRUCK IN PIT OF STOMACH

(Special to Telegraph)

Amboy, July 28.—Frank Edsall, who was born in Amboy Feb. 17th, 1878, and who was a brother of Mrs. Charles Newton of this city, died at his home in East Upper Alton, Ill., on Friday evening, 36 hours after he had been kicked by a horse at his home. Funeral services were held at his home Sunday at 2 p. m. with burial at Oakwood cemetery, Alton.

Mr. Edsall had a horse with a sore foot he had been doctoring and the animal had resisted efforts to treat the foot. On Thursday Mr. Edsall was currying the animal preparatory to go and help a neighbor do threshing. It was at noon time and he was alone in the barn. The horse, according to what Mr. Edsall told afterward, seemed to fear Mr. Edsall was about to do some further work on the sore foot and he resisted. Mr. Edsall did not expect the horse would kick him and so was unprepared for it when the animal drove at him with its hind feet. One foot got him on the arm and the other hit him squarely in the stomach. The latter injury was the fatal one. He staggered out of the barn unable to straighten up and called to his brother, Harry, and Frank Lebrun, who were nearby. They caught the horse, which had broken loose. Mr. Edsall went to the house and was unable to rise off the bed. He suffered terrible agony. Friday afternoon it became apparent that he could not survive. He had been unconscious since morning. The attending physician said he was confident the intestines had been torn by the kick of the horse and that nothing could be done to save the young man. He died at 5:30 o'clock Friday evening. Mr. Edsall leaves four brothers, Thomas, Dick, Harry and Arthur, and one sister, Mrs. Josephine Newton of Amboy, Ill.

VERDICT OF ACCIDENT IN ASHER TRAGEDY

JURY RETURNED FINDINGS LATE TUESDAY EVENING—NO NEW EVIDENCE

Because it was impossible to get all the witnesses together in the inquisition of the death of Otto A. Asher until Tuesday evening, the inquest was not held until 7:30 p. m. at the city hall. The jury had been empaneled before the supper hour and was composed of the following: Charles Eastman, foreman; A. E. Simonson, clerk; Harvey Sennett, Freeman Robinson, P. E. Ackman, and D. M. Sawyer. They viewed the body at the undertaking rooms of Joseph Staples, after which the remains were taken to the home of the deceased on Sixth street.

Several witnesses were called to give testimony. Mrs. A. M. Chronister, who was at the home of her brother, Mr. Geiger, near the scene of the accident, and who witnessed the accident, gave the story in substance as related in Tuesday evening's Telegraph. The other witnesses called were the daughter of the victim, Miss Carrie Asher, Engineer Oliver Bornmeier and Fireman Lacey. Nothing new was brought out by their testimony. The jury brought in their verdict finding that Mr. Asher came to his death by being struck by an Illinois Central switch engine at the Sixth street crossing on Monday evening at 6:30 p. m.

Drag President From Legation And Murder Him

Haitien Revolution Reaches Climax - U. S. Cruiser Rushes To Port-Au-Prince

(Associated Press)

Port Au Prince, July 28.—A mob of infuriated Haitians today removed President Guillaume of Haiti from the French legation, where he took refuge yesterday after the rebellious attack on the palace and shot him to death in front of the building.

Bury Massacred.

The assassination of the president was followed by the burial of 160 political prisoners who were massacred in prison yesterday on orders given by Governor General Oscar, a supporter of Guillaume. The mob later executed Oscar. Guillaume's body was mutilated and dragged through the streets.

Washington, July 28.—The U. S. Cruiser Washington, commanded by Admiral Caperton and with 700 blue jackets and 100 marines on board, is expected to reach Port Au Prince at noon today from Cape Haitien. Caperton will probably demand that all the fighting cease but will use his own discretion on landing forces.

RUSSIA CALLS OUT MEN BORN IN 1896

GENERAL MOBILIZATION IN SIBERIA ALSO REPORTED TO STOE GEIMANS.

An Imperial ukase has been issued at Petrograd calling to the colors all men born in 1896. It is also reported that general mobilization of troops has been ordered throughout Siberia.

To Prevent Retreat

The Germans are evidently making especial endeavors to cut communication between Warsaw and Petrograd for the purpose of preventing the successful retreat, if Warsaw falls, of the Russian army which is defending the city.

Hold Great Line.

The Germans hold a great line from the Gulf of Riga southward around Warsaw, thence encircling the city and stretching to the Galician frontiers.

Estimate Big Loss.

London estimates that the Germans lost 500,000 men in this movement and the Russian front is not yet broken.

The Germans are progressing toward the Lumlun-Chelm railroad which is of vast strategic value. Along the river Narew the German advance has been checked and the Russians are holding firmly along the Bug river.

Week's Battle In South.

Terrible fighting along the Austro-Italian front, which has been raging for a week, shows no sign of letting up or any indications of a definite outcome. The Austrians are contesting every foot and have lost 3,200 prisoners, Rome asserts.

Contest of Endurance

The war has become, and will likely continue for some time, a contest of endurance. Premier Asquith told the House of Commons today.

SIX INDICTMENTS IN SHIP TRAGEDY PROMISED TODAY

STATES ATTORNEY HOYNE SAYS MANSLAUGHTER MAY BE THE CHARGE.

GOVERNMENT IS NOT TO BLAME

Secretary Redfield Says Faulty Construction of Boat Is Not Up to the Officials.

(Associated Press)

Chicago, July 28.—Six or more indictments charging criminal carelessness or manslaughter in connection with the overturning of the Eastland Saturday morning will be returned late today by the Cook county grand jury, according to a statement made by States Attorney Hoyne this morning.

700 Funerals Today.

By proclamation of Mayor Thompson today was a day of mourning and almost 700 of the victims were buried during the day. Facilities for holding the funerals were lacking and as many as thirty of the dead were held simultaneously and in a single church.

The demand for usual funeral vehicles greatly exceeded the supply and motor trucks, some carrying several coffins, were pressed into service.

Hayrack Is Hearse.

Many of the funerals were held in drizzling rain. In one instance a hayrack was used as a hearse to carry two bodies.

Raising Eastland.

The powerful wrecking boat Favorite has begun work of raising the death ship, while forty divers are exploring the river bed for more victims.

Redfield Makes Statement.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield declared that the responsibility for ignoring the alleged faulty construction of the Eastland can not be placed on the federal inspectors. According to Mr. Redfield and Solicitor Thurman of the Department of Commerce, there is no federal board with authority to pass on the design of any vessel. "A man can build any sort of a boat and get it into commission without any inquiry from the government as to whether or not it is stable," said Solicitor Thurman.

Appeals to Citizens.

Secretary Redfield appealed to the citizens not to prejudice the case. "It is the time for insistent, deadly investigation," he said, "and from facts before me I believe the passenger inspection was first class."

Was Turned Away.

Francis Evans reported today that he was the first man turned away from the Eastland by the federal inspectors. He stated an inspector said: "No more. There are too many on board now."

Chicago, July 28.—

Captain Harry Pederson was directly blamed for the Eastland disaster by witness after witness at the coroner's inquest. Harbor Master Adam Weikler, a marine expert, testified he noticed the dangerous list of the vessel and warned Captain Pederson that he would not open the Clark street bridge and permit the ship to pass out into the lake until the vessel had been righted.

James R. Linn, assistant harbor master, testified that in his opinion Captain Pederson was guilty of negligence for not ordering the crew to get passengers off after he had failed to fill the water ballast tanks in seventeen minutes. The fact that there were bubbles in the river showed that the Eastland was stuck in the mud, he said, and the mud undoubtedly prevented the water from being pumped into the ballast tanks.

W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana transportation company, charterer of the ship, testified that he believed if the water ballast tanks had been filled the Eastland would not have toppled over. He put the blame for the tanks alleged to have been empty on the captain and chief engineer, J. S. Erickson, whose father-in-law is federal inspector, J.

COLLECTORS.

The world is full of men who collect things.

Some men collect postage stamps and pay as high as $10,000 for a stamp which was worth 2 cents before it carried a grocery bill to a barber's wife in Mauritius. Others collect pipes, snuff boxes, engravings, bird's eggs, geodes, tulips, tobacco tags, dogs, cats, fleas, Oriental rugs or street car transfers.

When a man becomes a collector he fixes his affections upon whatever he collects and lives for his fad. Nothing can exceed the pride with which an otherwise sane member of society will display a slipper of rare design, the finest in his collection of 1,789 varieties, all different, costing $100,000 and worth in the neighborhood of $1.45.

Collecting rare books is a passionate joy for many men. Edgar Allen Poe, who died of scanty nutrition, would be pleased to see the deep joy with which men pay thousands of dollars today for his manuscripts which brought 10 cents a page when he needed the money.

Collecting paintings has raised the price of old masters $7,000 above normal in the past thirty years. Rembrandts are so valuable because there are not enough of them to go around among the collectors.

Collecting railroads was a great fad with Harriman, Jay Gould and others. Nothing delighted them so much as to snap up a rare little railroad for about five times its worth and add it to their systems.

Collecting wives is a pastime in many countries. Solomon was a great collector and so was Brigham Young while some of our modern actors do very well in a modest way.

Henry Ford is said to be an automobile collector and to have one of every variety in his garage. This seems peculiar, because Ford's ambition seems to be to reduce automobiles to one variety.

Collecting statesmen was popular with many corporations before the new and reckless progressivism which made municipal and state ownership of public servants obligatory. Many corporations had as many as ten senators in their exhibits.

No collection, however, exceeds in peculiarity and success that of Germany which has now acquired ten enemies, thus beating Napoleon's and Frederick the Great's records.

ROCK RIVER ASSEMBLY TALK. FORECASTS OF COMING EVENTS

Citizens of Dixon:

As president of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce I wish to say a word or two in behalf of the Rock River Assembly, an institution in which we are all deeply interested.

The Assembly has become a fixed feature of our city. Many people know Dixon through our chautauqua. They visit the Assembly and ever after entertain a high opinion of our city, its industries and its people. Thus our Assembly is perhaps our chief advertising medium. Now, fellow citizens, let us show our appreciation of this prominent and useful institution by patronizing it; by purchasing season tickets; by voicing its merits, and by aiding in every possible manner for a successful session which opens next Saturday, July 31.

This year's program is both entertaining and instructive.

Sincerely,
William B. Brinton.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

No, fellow citizens, that is not the evidence of tobacco chewing you see around the lips of the members of the fire department. It is simply the proof of the generosity of their very staunch friend, Michael Whalen. He treated each and every member of the department to a penny-box of licorice yesterday. Who says the joys of living are imaginary?

On the other hand Arthur Altman, who resides right across the street from the fire fighters, is of the opinion that they are worthy of no remembrance—or particularly he is thinking that about Dave Kelly who is helping the boys keep the chairs down during the vacations of the respective members. Arthur thinks Dave's knowledge of religious matters is sadly neglected, too, for he evidently mistook the young Lutheran for a Baptist. At least he tried to immerse him in an attack from the rear with a stream from the fire hose.

After which elaborate attention to the fire department we will pass on to the next case—one of general interest:

WHATINELL GOOD IS THIS WEATHER, ANYWAY?

You wonder what makes the street cars so crowded at certain hours? Feeling the general interest in that wonder this col. has devoted considerable attention, expense, study and observation to the matter, and we believe we have absolutely determined what DOES make the street cars so crowded at certain hours. It is the number of passengers.

Some automobiles should be reckoned in bulky-horse-power.

In Dixon, Too.

The Wife—Do you know that you have not kissed me for over a week? Absent-minded Husband—Er, then I wonder who in the world I have been kissing.

Pome Y Auto No

When the kid's away;
Life is relieved of half its bliss,
The world is wrong and it goes amiss.

BRITAIN RECALLS HER ANSWER ON SHIPPING

Washington Is Asked to Await Supplementary Dispatch.

Washington, July 28.—Sir Edward Grey cabled Secretary Lansing that the British government has in preparation another note to the United States on the orders in council, and asked that the note delivered Monday be withheld from publication pending receipt of the new communication. Therefore the note was not published this morning as had been planned.

No indication of the nature of the forthcoming note was given in Sir Edward's cable, and state department officials have no intimation. They assume, however, that it is of a supplemental nature.

The development will further delay the dispatch of the American note to Great Britain on the same subject. Secretary Lansing had about finished it, and it was to be sent to President Wilson at Cornish, N. H., for his approval. It will not be dispatched until the new British note has been received and considered.

Illinois No Longer a Sport.

Auburn, Ill., July 28.—The State of Illinois has gone out of the game bird business almost entirely. The last of the game birds which made the Auburn farm famous have been removed, and all of the equipment will be carted away as soon as the state fish and game commission can find some place to put it.

MUCH OPPOSITION TO NEW P. O. ORDER

RURAL PATRONS SAY THAT BOX NUMBERING WILL BECOME CONFUSING.

Postmaster Wm. F. Hogan is in receipt of a recent order issued by the postoffice department in regard to having all rural route mail boxes numbered.

In many counties steps are being taken to carry out the provisions of this order. In other places, however, opposition is made to the measure on the ground that it will be a hard task to keep the boxes numbered. A man will have a numbered box, then will move to another farm and take his box along with him and the man who goes to his place will take with him his old number and not knowing the number that belongs to him in his new location it will become lost and in this way the list would soon become wrong and of little use. However, it is not known at present whether or not this opposition from some places will be strong enough to cause the revocation of the order and in the meantime many of the postmasters are going ahead with the work.

The dead are: James McDonald, driver of the train, twenty-four years old; Mrs. Annie Hartman, sixty-five years old, of Brooklyn; Miss Ruth Cuddy, forty years old, of Long Island City.

DIXON AND PAWPAW DIXON MIX TOMORROW

IF WEATHER MAN WILL BEHAVE LONG ENOUGH CONTEST WILL BE PLAYED

Weather permitting, the Dixon Home Guards and Pawpaw Independents will play their game postponed from Tuesday to tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at Lincoln park. Arrangements for playing off the postponed contest were completed last evening, and the Pawpaw team, with a dozen or fifteen auto loads of fans, will arrive in the city about noon tomorrow.

The Pawpaw boys are tickled to death because they defeated Dixon, 2 to 1 at Pawpaw a week ago Friday and they have visions of another victory over Prof. Stratton's hard hitting youngsters, therefore they will be an enthusiastic bunch.

And inasmuch as this is one of the games on the attendance at which the management of the Home Guards has hung the future of baseball in Dixon, it is up to the Dixon fans to attend.

Lay-to for a spell and swing on this:

You'll start an old-pal-party via a pipe or a makin's cigarette quick as a flash, as soon as you realize it's a live bet to let your good money rub up against some Prince Albert tobacco. Why, it's like beating back to the bushes for old-home week, P. A.'s so friendly, so chummy-like.

You see, Prince Albert lets you hear the song of the joy'us jimmy pipe and the makin's cigarette all the day long! The patented process takes care of that—and cuts out the bite and parch!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

just hands you home-made questions like these:

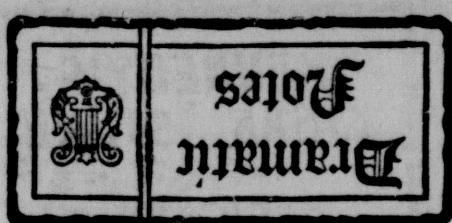

Were you ever pipe-happy? Did you ever hit a brand that just pushed pleasure against your palate? The kind that sort of teased your smokeappetite for some more fire-up, then another—and so on, right to the pillow-period!

Well, that's P. A., no matter how you hook it up—pipe or cigarette. It just-jams-joy into your system! You nail that fact hot off the bat, because it's case-cards information! And handed out to you for personal and immediate attention as being about as real and true as you've heard since Hector was a pup!

M. Reid of Grand Haven. It was Reid who granted papers increasing the Eastland's carrying capacity.

Other witnesses told of the list of the boat and asserted it was heavily overloaded, one witness, A. C. Rickney, testifying that there must have been "between 3,000 and 4,000 passengers on the ship."

Coroner's Inquest Under Way.
The coroner's inquest which was directed in large part by States Attorney Hoyne was the first of the several investigations to swing into action. Preliminary to the government inquiry ordered by Federal Judge Landis to begin Thursday with the impounding of a grand jury, bench warrants were issued by Judge Landis for the arrest of Martin Flatow, Chicago manager of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship company; Chief Engineer Erickson, Captain Pederson, Delbert Fisher, first mate, and Peter Fisher, member of the crew, to insure their presence before the federal jury.

Redfield Arrives.

William C. Redfield, secretary of the department of commerce, arrived in the city and immediately went into conference with United States District Attorney Cline in connection with the government's investigation. Mr. Redfield visited the scene of the disaster and his first act was to direct that a search be made for the "safety first" sign which federal regulations require all steamers to carry. So far the sign has not been found. Mr. Redfield also directed his attention to the life preservers on the boat and pointed out that all bore the government stamps, showing that they had been inspected five times in the last five years. The secretary said he was ready to appear before any of the investigating bodies and that he had summoned various employees in the government's inspection service to Chicago that they would be within the jurisdiction of the courts and could be called to testify and tell what they knew. He defended his subordinates and quoted the bible and Shakespeare in pleading for suspended judgment until more of the facts were known.

PRaises AMERICAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

BRITISH WORKER IN SERBIA TELLS OF GOOD WORK BEING DONE THERE

London, July 26 — (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—A report just received from the British Red Cross workers in Serbia speaks very highly of the work of the American contingent there.

"The work of the Americans already challenges comparison with what the British workers have done," says the report, "and it promises soon to outstrip us. An International Sanitary Commission, of which Sir Ralph Paget is chairman, has been established with headquarters in Nish. Under it the general medical and sanitary work of the country has been roughly apportioned between the different cooperating nations. France has charge of the northern half of the country, and the United States of the south. Nish and its immediate neighborhood is under the Russians. The British have had the care of the Army and most of the hospital work, except what the Serbians themselves are doing.

"This plan is working smoothly and well; but the share of the burden which the United States is bearing continually increases, and will increase. Dr. Richard Strong, head of the American Sanitary Commission, is an exceptional man of wide experience, and he has behind him the practically unlimited financial resources of the wonderful Rockefeller foundation.

"The United States, moreover, is the only nation which at the moment can spare an almost limitless supply of doctors. A party of 25 additional American doctors is expected shortly at Salonika. They are the advance guard of a contingent of 150 or more as they land they will be detached, singly and in twos and threes, to points all over Serbia where they are most needed.

"The typhus has now been reduced to such comparatively trivial proportions that one almost begins to speak of it in the past tense, although there will be many thousands of deaths from it yet. The total number during the winters and spring was well over 200,000.

"There are now 420 British doctors and nurses in Serbia. There have been no new wounded for some five months; typhus and typhoid have declined until they are no longer a serious public menace, and cholera however anxiously awaited, has not yet arrived.

FORMER DIXON MAN DEAD IN WISCONSIN

HELTON T. MATTHEWS WAS IN BUSINESS HERE—FUNERAL HERE ON FRIDAY.

Word was received here today of the death Wednesday at Sheboygan, Wis., of Helton T. Matthews, after an illness of several months, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kittie M. Urban. The remains will be brought to Dixon for burial Thursday afternoon on the 3:34 o'clock train. The funeral will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. from the Morris & Preston chapel on East First street, Rev. F. D. Stone officiating.

Mr. Matthews was an early pioneer settler of Dixon and is remembered by the older residents of the city. At an early day he in partnership with Charles M. Smith, conducted a livery stable at the site of the opera house block on Galena avenue. Later he became interested in the old distillery in West Dixon and later conducted a drug store where the O. H. Martin dry goods store stands. He retired from business in the early 80's and was appointed city marshal, later acting as merchants' police for a number of years. Because of rheumatism he was forced to give up work and following the death of his wife a few years ago he went to Wisconsin to reside with his daughter.

Mr. Matthews, who was about 82 years of age, leaves to mourn his death, a daughter, Mrs. Kittie Urban, of Sheboygan, Wis., and a son, Robert Matthews, of Chicago.

THE PROFESSOR

They call him the professor, this man of aspect wise; and he is the possessor of dreamy, soulful eyes. He leans, in graceful languor, beneath the chandelier, oblivious to the clangor of all the gossips near. His thoughts are doubtless busy with problems most abstruse, with themes so weird and dizzy, they'd cook a layman's goose.

"No doubt," I softly mutter, "his spirit roams some star; it's left this mundane gutter for shining fields afar. Among the constellations or riding Charles's Wain, it views the tailing nations with something like disdain. Oh, one can see by viewing his high and bulging brow, his mind is off pursuing some complex problem now!

"He may be a musician, and has within his ears—when he's in good condition—the music of the spheres. If I had proper data to make his standing plain, I'd find a grand sonata is forming in his brain. He has the taper fingers that get the keyboard's goat, the artist's hand that lingers on each caressing note. Perhaps upon the organ he plays a solemn air, composed some foreign morgue in by genius with long hair. Perhaps upon the fiddle he makes those fingers whiz. His talents are a riddle, but talented he is!

"That he may be a singer, I have a gentle hunch he surely is a ringer for Ruffo and that bunch. So help me Dolly Varden, he has a singer's eyes! He may be Mary Garden or Melba in disguise. Oh, money, chalk or marbles I'd gladly bring along, to hear him when he warbles some good old jungle song!

"And yet in all this guessing I may be badly off, and that would be distressing. Perhaps this dreamy toff is famous as an artist; among the painting groups, I'll bet he is the smartest since Rembrandt looped the loops. He looks much like a painter, when once I view his style; his necktie's surely quainter than mine, by half a mile. He has a rolling collar and Van Dyck whiskerines, and doubtless not a dollar is hidden in his jeans.

"Perchance he is a poet; he needs a haircut bad and doesn't seem to know it or hasn't got the scud."

The stranger then came to me a smiling by the yard; ere I could say, "Bestrew me!" he handed me his card. He drew it forth sedately, from pocket in his vest; I read it, rattled greatly, "All garments neatly pressed!" — By Walt Mason, from Judge

Lots of Vowels.

In the Hawaiian language every word ends in a vowel. A Hawaiian finds it almost impossible to pronounce two consonants together, and in English he has the greatest difficulty in pronouncing any word ending with a consonant. Mr. Hale in his Polynesian grammar says: "In all the Polynesian dialects every syllable must terminate in a vowel, and two consonants are never heard without a vowel between them. It is chiefly to this peculiarity that the softness of these languages is to be attributed. The longest syllables have only three letters, and many syllables consist of a single vowel." Again, no syllable, as a general rule, in the Bantu family of African speech can end in a consonant, but only in vowels.

Protected.

Grubbs—I hear that old Skinnem has given the committee his views on the proposed new charter.

Stubbs—That must be a mistake. Skinnem never gave anybody anything. If the committee had his views he has the committee's note providing for the return of the views with something more than legal interest. — Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Graybill which was very brilliant. Frank Salisbury, the senior classic graduate, gave the Hungarian Dance and a very beautiful movement from Huber's Sonata accompanied by the stringed orchestra. Mr. Salisbury showed high technical skill and training. Howard Cruse of Sterling gave Ernst's Elegie in a manner that would do credit to an artist. Misses Mabel Drew and Mabel Gleim gave Rubenstein's Melody in F on two pianos with very fine expression. Miss Florence Hoffman in the post graduate course rendered in an artistic manner the very difficult arrangement of Strauss' Blue Danube which showed her to be a master of the instrument.

Prof. Strong in his remarks explained to the audience why there were different courses in the school and that they were trying to show to the pupils a broad scope of musical training and what they did not know rather than to convey the idea that they had completed the courses in music. The experience and hard work necessary for these graduation exercises are very valuable to the WATER WAGON CREW HERE TOMORROW EVE.

WILL HOLD MEETING AT METHODIST CHURCH—INTERESTING TOUR.

A unique feature of the temperance war is the transcontinental crusade now under way. The "Water Wagon" tour over the Lincoln Highway, begun at New York on July 4, will continue from ocean to ocean, ending in San Francisco on September 5. Doctor Howard H. Russell, founder of the Anti-Saloon League and Lincoln-Lee Legion, will be the speaker. He will be accompanied by his specialists in song, the "Rail-Splitter" Quartet, college men from Ohio Wesleyan university.

To provide comfort in travel and insure the prompt keeping of appointments, two high powered automobiles have been chosen to transport the party and their baggage. An experienced chauffeur has charge of each machine. More than one hundred "Round Ups" will be held on the way. The subject of Dr. Russell's address will be "What Would Lincoln Do." The quartet will sing from a fine repertoire of patriotic concert selections, including Abraham Lincoln's favorite song and selections of war songs and other melodies of Lincoln's time often heard and much loved by Lincoln.

To these round-up rallies young people, women, men, everybody, are invited. With eloquence and song, Secretary Russell and his "Rail Splitters" will agitate and advocate sobriety for the individual and prohibition for the nation. A special campaign will be started to enroll a million new abstainers upon the Lincoln pledge in the counties on the Lincoln Highway.

The "Round Up" for this locality will be held at the M. E. church in this city tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

pupils and by gradual courses in advancement they become much better musicians in the end.

Very much of the credit for this excellent program was due to the able assistance of Mrs. Strong and her talented daughter, Mrs. Hennessy who were responsible for the training of many of the graduates.

The orchestra closed the program with Dvorak's Humoresk which would do credit to a concert organization of a much larger institution. Taking it all in all this was the finest graduation concert given in the history of the school.

Graduates.

Those graduating from the several courses are: post graduate, Miss Florence Hoffman, Sublette, Ill.; Classic, Frank Salisbury, violin, Rainbeck, Ia.; Normal, Howard Cruse, violin, Sterling, Ill.; Academic, Miss Alice Coppins, violin, Dixon; Miss Helen Frances Cramer, piano, Dixon; Miss Mabel Drew, piano, Dixon; Miss Mabel Gleim, piano, Lee Center, Ill.; Preparatory, Miss Esther Ferguson, piano, Dixon; Miss Ethel Flanagan, Dixon; Miss Mabel Fry, piano, Dixon; Miss Nora Gottel, piano, Dixon; Miss Ruth Morris, violin, Dixon; Miss Alta Naylor, piano, Dixon; Miss Ruby Phillips, piano, Dixon; Miss Christina Plein, piano, Dixon; Miss Helen Plein, violin, Dixon; Miss Avis Swartz, piano, Dixon; Miss Beside Sworn, piano, Dixon; Miss Enid Wicher, piano, Dixon; Miss Elma

WARSAW, POLISH CAPITAL, MAIN OBJECTIVE OF GERMANS IN EASTERN THEATER OF WAR

CITY HALL IN THE CITY OF WARSAW

In the accompanying illustration is shown the city hall in the city of Warsaw. From the beginning of the war the capital of Russian Poland has been the objective of the German armies in the eastern theater of war. The famous drive of the Russians westward through Eastern Prussia, only to meet with disaster at Tannenberg, had a sympathetic sequel in the south, where on Nov. 10 the Russian lines actually penetrated Posen. Since then, however, and down to the middle of February the Germans had three advanced and retreated between Warsaw and the frontier, so that on the foregoing date they formed almost a semicircle around the city. Later the lines were gradually straightened so as to form an angle, with a point twenty miles due west of Warsaw as its vortex. For the last five months, during the German drives in the direction of Riga in the north and the Russian sweep through Galicia in the south up to the last of April and then the retreat from the Carpathians to the Polish frontier, the lines around Warsaw have remained about the same. Only when, during the past few weeks, the pressure northeast and southeast of the city increased has the angle become smaller. Until then the name of Warsaw had hardly been mentioned in the dispatches since the middle of last October, when thousands of German prisoners passed through it on their way east. On these prisoners were found postcards ready written announcing to their home addresses that Warsaw would be taken on the 15th of October, the birthday of Emperor William, as a fitting present on the Imperial anniversary.

HARRY MESTAYER (Selig Star)

Harry Mestayer Comes From Family of Theatrical People

Mr. Harry Mestayer, the popular star, who is taking leading roles in Selig Red Seal Plays, comes from an ancestry of famous stage artists. He will be seen in important character roles in "The Millionaire Baby" and "The House of a Thousand Candles," Selig Red Seal Plays.

His theatrical career before he joined the Selig company, was long and distinguished and he has assumed probably a thousand parts in the spoken drama.

In a recent interview he said, "There are many chances to be taken while working before the camera, which are not met on the stage, but withal I am sure that the life of a movie actor is the more enjoyable. The motion picture art is a great one, for pantomime is as old as the ages. I have no regret in leaving the stage for motion pictures and can hardly wait until I arrive on the Pacific coast, where I expect to work in Selig Red Seal Plays."

In the motion pictures, the stage artist is not obliged to "live in a trunk," he or she can have a home. There are no late hours, and when the day's work is finished one can enjoy the comforts of a home. There is also no so-called "seasons"—one works both summer and winter and the salary is as good as that given actors and actresses in the spoken drama.

Mr. Mestayer is a handsome young man in the early thirties; he is a versatile artist and has that magnetism that is so essential to success,

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers you—Meat forms uric acid.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everybody should take, now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The bullet lodged in the fleshy part of the leg. No bones were broken. Dr. Hedberg removed him to the Lincoln hospital at Rochelle, where an X-ray was taken.

SCHOFIELD HOTEL AND COTTAGES

This popular resort is almost as well known as the Dells. It has been entertaining summer guests for forty years, and has lately been enlarged in capacity by the erection of a large modern building, fully equipped with every modern convenience, and affording dining room, assembly parlors, etc. This is an addition to the popular cottage plan, and adds to the previous popular attractions of the older system. The hotel and cottages are in extensive grounds, delightfully shaded by large oaks, and being away from the river is most especially desirable for families with children. The location is in the edge of Kilbourn on a pretty resident street, but a pleasant walk from the river and depot, and with regular free bus and carriage service to these points. The large hotel is not surpassed in this locality in point of modern style and comfort. The annex cottages and grounds make it altogether everything that anybody would desire. The test of efficiency is in the table. This hotel is especially noted for its excellent table board. Fresh butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit are supplied daily from the farm, and its preparation by a professional chef is perfect; chicken dinners twice a week.

How Gasoline Engines Work.

In the practical operation of a gasoline engine there are several parts, each characterized by a particular event. The cylinder is charged by an outstroke of the piston, creating a vacuum behind it and drawing in the mixture of air and gasoline gas formed in the carburetor. The charge is then compressed by the return stroke of the piston, which act secures complete carburization of the contained air and reduces the mixture to the proper condition to be kindled by the igniting spark or other source of firing. This causes it to explode, or to expand suddenly and with great effect, and drive the piston outward again. The fourth stroke, which is the one immediately following the explosion, is known as the exhaust stroke from the fact that the piston, moving back again in the cylinder, expels the products of combustion through the exhaust valve. This process completed, the parts are in position for a repetition of the process, the valves for admitting gasoline gas to the cylinder being opened again. —Philadelphia Press.

Ideal Helpmate.

The farmer's wife knows more about her husband's business than any other man's wife knows about his. She has a fairer, clearer and more helpful understanding of it than the average lawyer's, doctor's or merchant's wife can possibly have about her husband's business, for she lives and works with her husband on their "plant." The farmer's wife is the farmer's partner in more senses than one. In the majority of cases she actually operates certain departments of the business.

Most wives have genuine interest in and some information about their husbands' business, but the farmer's wife, living with her partner on their plant, occupies a unique position among all wives. With this greater opportunity for helpfulness than her city sisters her responsibilities have increased proportionately. All honor and respect to her who carries this heavier burden. —Farm and Fireside.

Terms Not Accepted.

While out fishing one day, dressed in oilskins and a slouch hat, Mr. Cleveland was accosted by an amateur fisherman dressed in the height of fashion in outing togs.

"Hello, there, boatman!" called out the stranger, who saw that Mr. Cleveland had made a good catch. "What will you take for your fish?"

"I'm not selling them," replied Mr. Cleveland.

"Well, what do you want to take me out fishing tomorrow?"

Mr. Cleveland laughed, enjoying the joke.

"I can't make any engagement except by the season. Will you give me as much as I made last year?"

"You're a sharp fellow, but you're a mighty fine fisherman, and I'll accept your terms. How much did you earn?"

"Oh, about $1,000 a week. I was president of the United States."

Hunting Ground for the Author.

The hunting ground for the author in search of a title is the Bible. Hall Caine has drawn therefrom "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," "The Prodigal Son," "The Scapgoat," Miss Marie Corelli went to the same source for "Wormwood" and "Barabbas." Miss Braddon for "One Thing Needful" and "Thou Art the Man," Marion Crawford for "Whosoever Shall Offend," Whyte Melville for "Black, but Comely," Thomas Hardy for "The Landloper," W. J. Lockie for "Where Love Is," William Black for "A Daughter of Beth," William Le Queux for "As We Forgive Them," Walter Besant for "Children of Gilead" and "The Fourth Generation," and so on. The list might be greatly prolonged. —Pittsburgh Press.

De Quincey's Monotonous Diet.

De Quincey's style was variegated enough, but his diet was monotonous to a degree, his dinner for the last thirty years of his life invariably comprising some loaf of mutton, boiled rice and coffee. Every day he interviewed the cook and told her to prepare these dishes, adding: "If you do not remember to cut the mutton in a diagonal rather than a longitudinal form, consequences incalculably distressing to my system will arise and will prevent me from attending in matters of overwhelming importance." No wonder the "withered Scotsman" when thus addressed with polysyllables for thus dined with a walking stick of great weight and beauty. —Christian Register.

Making a Hit.

An advertisement of a recent sale ran thus: "The choice collection of bric-a-brac offered for sale is so unusual that it may safely be said each piece in it is calculated to create a sensation among people of artistic sense. Immediately on entering the room the visitor's eye will be struck by a carved walking stick of great weight and beauty." —Christian Register.

Something In This.

"I think these campfire girls are learning some useful lessons." "For instance?" "After bending over a smoky campfire a girl won't be half so apt to shy from the kitchen range." —Kansas City Journal.

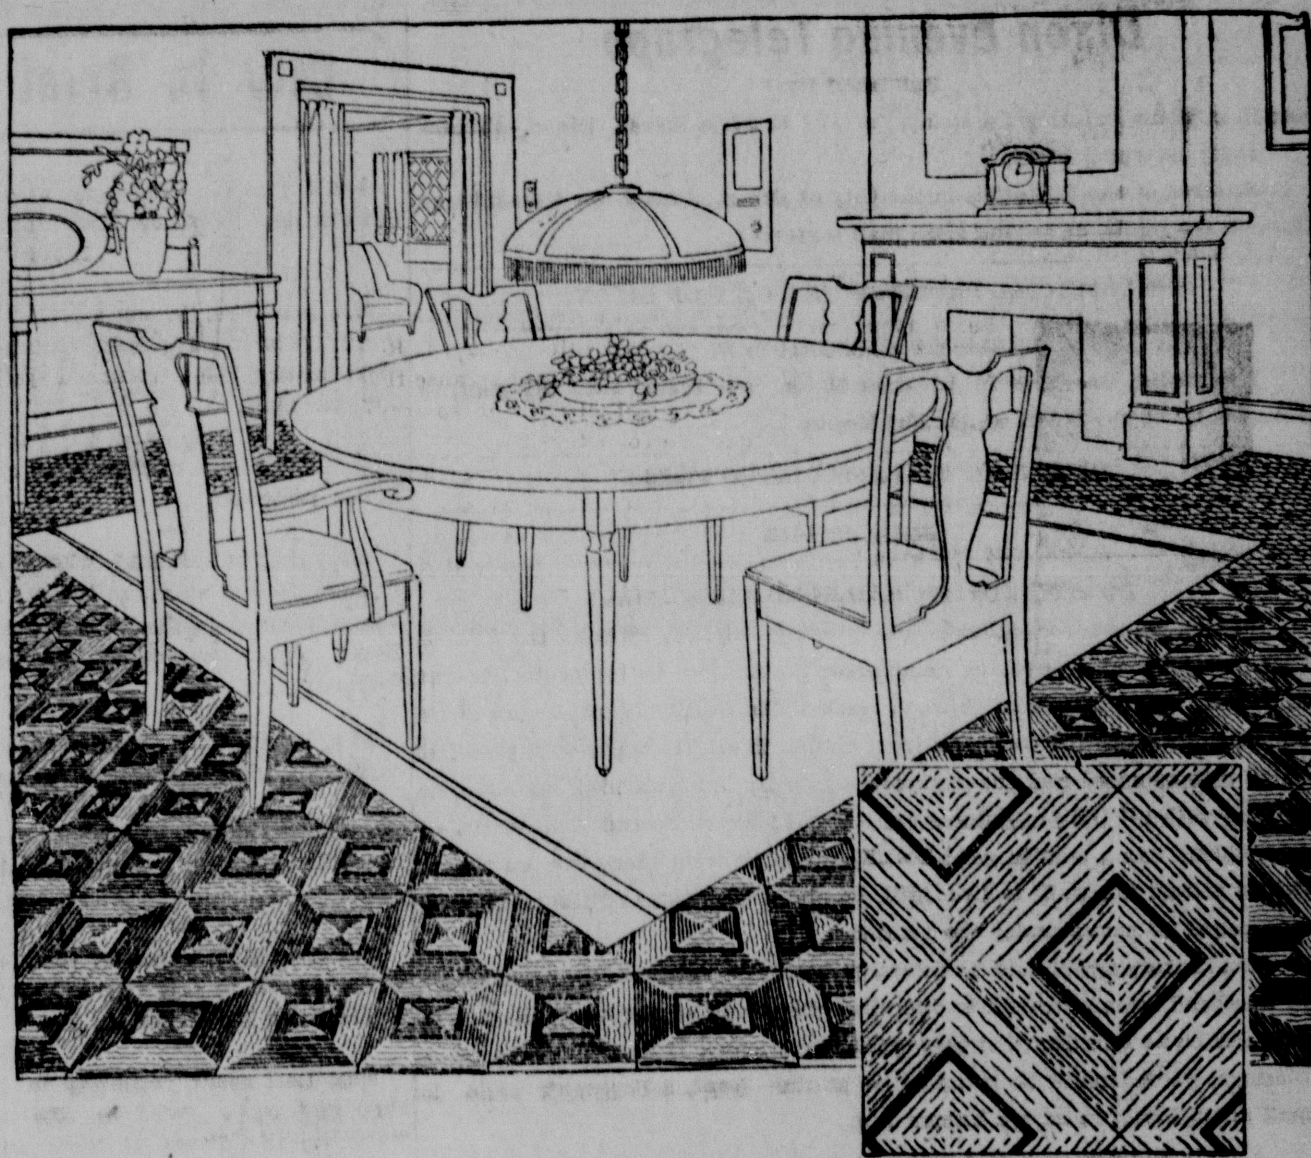

His Relationship.

Kind Party—And is that poor man sitting in the starway your brother? Frazzled Freddy—No, sir; he's my stepbrother. —Chicago News.

The Parting Guest.

"Welcome the coming, speed the parting guest," is a misquotation. Pope, the author, wrote "the going guest."

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way." —Mrs. THOMSON, 449 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

DO AWAY WITH RAILROAD CROSSINGS.

The unfortunate accident at the crossing of the switch track and Sixth street the other evening emphasizes the need of better protection for all persons who must cross railroad tracks. The testimony at the coroner's inquest exonerated the trainmen from blame. The train was not running at a high rate of speed and the engineer sounded all the warning signals he had and with all the promptness and vigor at his command. The victim of the accident was a man in good health and spirits and there was no reason why he should not want to live. Still, he stepped in front of the train and was ground to pieces under the wheels.

Grade crossings should be done away with everywhere. The cost of every overhead crossing would be less than the worth of one man's life, and there can be no question that they would save many. If we can't have grade crossings, gates should be installed or at the least, a flagman's wage is small enough cost to save a human life.

A train running at a fair rate of speed cannot be stopped in time to avert an accident. It must follow the rails and cannot turn out to go around an unheeding person. Therefore it seems necessary to make it impossible for such a person to get on the track in front of a moving train without knowing the danger he is in.

Of course the railroads may say that everyone knows when he sees a railway track that there may be trains coming on it and that the whistles and bells on the engine surely should be warning enough when a train is coming and that everyone should stay off the rails at these times. It is true that people do know these things and that they should be careful, but the fact has just been demonstrated that people become careless and thoughtless. No matter how careless they may be, they are entitled to a right to live and should not suffer death because of their careless neglect. There is no one arguing that the fault in a case of this sort should be placed on anyone but the victim, but that does not alter the fact that this man's life was valuable to himself and his family and that it could have been saved if it had not been so easy for him to get on the track in front of the train.

Everyone is apt to grow careless. Children are especially given to lack of appreciation of danger. Pedestrians step off the sidewalk and walk directly in front of automobiles and they often do not hear loud warning signals.

There are a number of very dangerous railroad crossings in Dixon. One particularly bad one is at the intersection of the switch tracks and Galena avenue at the south end of the bridge and the intersection of North Galena avenue and the Illinois Central tracks is also considerable of a death trap. All the warning that one gets at the last mentioned crossing is the track itself, which may be very easily overlooked by persons driving that road who are unfamiliar with the place. The required sign, put up by the railroad company, warning all who may come that they are about to cross a railroad track, is there, true enough, but a person might go by it for a year without seeing it. It is a small iron plate, with raised letters, plate and letters about the same color, and the printed side is placed parallel with the road. It is square and not much over a foot each way. The sign should be a large one and it should be at right angles with the road, with the words of warning on both sides. Of course, as the Telegraph has suggested several times before, to be made at all safe, this crossing and the other dangerous crossings in the city should be replaced with overhead crossing or equipped with gates.

The Illinois Central railroad has placed signs reading "Safety First" on both sides of the stone arches that form the overhead crossings for that road over Second and Third streets in Dixon. The idea is a very commendable one, but we do not believe they have found it appropriate to place such signs at the several grade crossings of the road in this city. Such a sign would be very consistent if it appeared at the Sixth street or Third street or First street or Galena avenue crossings of the union switch track in this city. The Safety First idea is a splendid one. It is growing, and in time it will take precedence over the "dividends first" way of managing a railroad, because the public will demand it. Lives are too sacred and too valuable to be sacrificed to commercialism and even though a man may be careless in protecting himself, if there is any way to save him in spite of himself, it should be done.

The Telegraph does not wish to single out the Illinois Central for an attack. That company is no worse an offender than the other railroads. The Chicago & Northwestern has some very dangerous grade crossings on the "cut-off" just south of Dixon and the McRoberts crossing, now being changed to an overhead crossing, has cost many lives. If the crossing now being built at the McRoberts farm west of Dixon had been put in when the railroad was built, a great many lives would have been spared. Most of the C. & N. W. crossings within the city of Dixon are overhead and well protected, however.

No doubt the railway officials will be glad when the day has come that there are no grade crossings, for no railroad man wants to see a man killed. The Illinois Central people use every precaution they can with the present equipment. Their efforts now, and the efforts of the managers of all railroads, should be to induce the financial backers of the properties to forget dividends until their roads are made less of a menace to individuals.

THE SMOKE NUISANCE.

The city officials are making an effort to put a stop to the smoke nuisance that is rolling residents near Dixon factories. The most objectionable factories have been notified by the police department that they must put on smoke consumers or take some such measures to stop the distributing of soot from their smoke-stacks. As yet there has been no appreciable difference in the quantity or quality of soot that is making much business for the laundries and painters and so much indignation in the hearts of the housekeepers. When you cannot sit out on your porch or lawn or leave your windows open on a hot summer day or night because of the soot that is coming from the smokestacks, it is time to do something. Dixon wants all the smokestacks it can get, but the machinery can be kept going just as well without so much wasted coal.

Sword of Damocles.

According to a classic legend, Damocles, who lived about 400 years before Christ, was a courtier and flatterer of a tyrannical ruler named Dionysius, whom he declared the happiest man on earth. To convince him of his mistake and prove that even the office of king had its drawbacks Dionysius invited Damocles to take his place and do his job for awhile. So Damocles donned royal robes and was seated at a banquet enjoying himself when he suddenly perceived hanging over his head a sword suspended by a single horse hair, which was liable to break at any moment. This so terrified him that he immediately resigned his temporary kingship. Whether the story is true or not, it has served for a long time to point a moral. Thackeray says in "Vanity Fair": "Let us who have not our names in the red book console ourselves by thinking comfortably how miserable our betters may be and that Damocles, who sits on satin cushions and is served on gold plates, has an awful sword hanging over his head, in the shape of a baillif or hereditary disease or family secret."

A Novel Prescription.

The celebrated Dr. Abernethy, who lived more than 100 years ago, not only loathed circumlocution in others, but avoided it himself. The Rev. Dr. Tuckerman of New England went to London for his health, where he consulted Dr. Abernethy and, oblivious of scowls and jerks of the body, expatiated on the importance of health to him, as the pastor of "a little parish in Chelsea, Mass.," until the physician lost his patience completely and cut him short with:

"No matter about your little parish; go home and build a barn!" And now comes the proof of the crusty doctor's cleverness as a diagnostician. Although inclined at first to resent the abrupt and unsympathetic dictum, Dr. Tuckerman followed the advice and found it perfectly adapted to his case.

He got plenty of outdoor exercise and a mechanical employment that occupied his mind. When the barn was finished his health was restored.—Youth's Companion.

High Explosive Shells.

High explosive shells are strong steel cases with a fuse, usually placed in the base. The charge employed may be either lyddite, which is a preparation of picric acid—or tri-nitrotoluol. The metal in the shell is fairly thick. The explosion is very violent, and has a thoroughly destructive effect upon anything near the point where the shell explodes—concrete, walls, entanglements, steel shields for the trenches or for guns.

Shrapnel are quite different projectiles and are serviceable against infantry in the open or lightly intrenched. They are thin steel cases containing a very small charge of low or moderate power explosive, which opens the cases and liberates a large number of bullets in them. These cover an oval area as they scatter and kill unprotected men. Shrapnel are useless against fortified positions, strongly built houses or deep and well planned intrenchments.—Pearson's.

Looking Through a Periscope.

It is an experience to glance through a periscope of a submarine when submerged. It is also something that needs getting accustomed to before any distinct image can be made out. The first thing that strikes the novice is the extraordinarily wide range of vision. The whole outline of a vessel can be clearly made out, though the ship may be comparatively close at hand, while farther away the ocean can be swept to a very considerable extent. Those who have been accustomed to submarines since their early days state that vast improvements have been made in periscopes lately over the former patterns, when the view was very restricted. Submerged watchers were then often puzzled to know whether it was the hull of a ship or a portion of the coast they could see.—London Standard.

Living Chess.

The game of "living chess" has been given frequently in out of door fetes. The ground is marked in squares, like a huge chessboard, and the pieces are represented by women and men in costumes that indicate their positions—queens, bishops, knights, pawns, etc. The game is played by the directions of two persons seated on thrones at the edge of the board, the pieces making the moves indicated by them.

Very Hard Water.

"Is the water where you live now hard or soft?" asked the aunt. "It must be pretty hard," replied her niece. "The girl splattered some of it on the lamp chimney the other night and it broke all to pieces."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Warship Gun Rooms.

The gun room of a man-of-war is a cabin where midshipmen, naval cadets and other junior officers pass their time when they are off duty. It came to be called the gun room from being under the care of the gunner in days gone by.

FRENCH WIN UPHILL BATTLE

Forces of Republic Completely Dominate Valley of Fecht.

Paris, July 28.—The French forces in the Vosges completed the conquest of a highly important crest of hills which the Germans had doubly fortified. These hills dominate the principal valley of the Fecht and the highway leading through it to Colmar. Consequently the French artillery placed on the new positions will be able to make life for the Germans in the valley beneath very uncomfortable if not absolutely impossible.

The attack was begun Monday. By evening the summit of Lingkopf was cleared of Germans and the French troops were digging themselves in. Two additional crests in its vicinity, Schratzmaennle and Baronkopf were also taken. All of the fighting was 650 feet up hill.

PEOPLES COLUMN

THE DRAINAGE QUESTION

West Brooklyn, Ill., July 26, '15
Editor Telegraph,
Dixon, Ill.,

Dear Sir: In your issue of Saturday, July 24th, appears an item which vitally concerns a large number of your readers and citizens, tax payers in the Inlet Swamp drainage district. The item referred to is "Dredge No. 4 Discontinued for lack of funds."

Without going into details regarding the comments made in your article, will say that this advice comes to the residents and the tax payers of the Inlet Swamp Drainage district in the nature of a bolt of lightning from a clear sky. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been levied and collected from the land owners in this district for the express purpose of carrying out and completing the drainage scheme as outlined by John M. Egan, civil engineer for the drainage district, in his report to the drainage commissioners under date of March 24, 1911.

This report contemplated a total expenditure of about $387,000.00 to ant undertake and will it champagne out and complete the drainage plan the cause of the people and public system as outlined in that report. This scheme was adopted by the com missioners of the drainage district, accepted by the land owners, and approved by the County court of Lee county. Bids were advertised for, and contracts awarded for the work as outlined in this, Engineer Egan's report. This report was complete in every detail, covering not only the cost of excavations, rock as well as earth, provided for right-of-way damages, tile drains and incidental expenses of every kind and nature that might arise in carrying out and completing this scheme of permanent drainage.

The writer is advised that in no case does the contract price exceed the estimates of the civil engineer's estimate. To the contrary, we are aware of the fact that miles and miles of right of way were never settled for by the drainage commissioners and thousands of dollars in damages to land owners to this day remain unsettled. The assessment of $387,000.00 and accrued interest, it is conservative to estimate, would total some $450,000.00. Query: Where has this vast sum of money gone to? This will be exceedingly interesting NEWS to your readers. Are your readers and the land owners and tax payers of the Inlet Swamp drainage district to be enlightened on this all important matter? Are they to be made to believe, as this item in your paper of the 24th indicated, that about $450,000.00 of their hard earned money is to go to naught, that the main and principal barrier to the entire drainage system is to remain indefinitely, thereby rendering "Nil" all the work that has been done within and without the drainage district during the past three years? Have the drainage commissioners exceeded or ignored the privileges or authority vested in them by the county court. These are matters of vital interest to hundreds of your readers and citizens and tax payers of Lee county. Will the Telegraph arise to the occasion and enlighten the reading public concerning this all important question. Already the machinery has been set in motion to secure the services of competent licensed accountants who will be placed upon the trial of the elusive $450,000.00, or thereabouts, so as to determine where it is, what it has been doing and whether or not it has been doing the work for which its owners set it about to do, and that in accordance with the mandates of the county court. Will the Telegraph assist in this very important expenditure of about $387,000.00 to ant undertake and will it champagne out and complete the drainage plan the cause of the people and public system as outlined in that report. This scheme was adopted by the com

The writer most earnestly hopes that you will.

Yours for Justice,
Tax Payer Inlet Swamp Drainage District.

Editor's Note:—The Telegraph will gladly publish the results of any correctly conducted investigation into the management of any department of public business. We are inclined to believe that if the tax payers in the drainage district are dissatisfied that an investigation and accounting would be a good thing, for if there has been mismanagement, of which of course we have no knowledge, the tax payers have a right to know it and if on the other hand, the accounting and explanation proves that the drainage commissioners have done their work honestly and well and that the highest standard of efficiency has been maintained, the tax-payers of the district would then be better satisfied and would feel that their money was being used wisely and well, thereby stopping the ill feeling and the litigation that has impeded the work of the drainage commission and has cost the treasury of that body considerable money. The Telegraph will be glad to throw whatever light upon this matter that lies within its power

ADEQUATE NAVY
PLANS TO FORE

Congress to Get Most Comprehensive Program.

PRESIDENT TO GIVE SUPPORT

All Naval Boards and Secretary Daniels Are in Harmony Over Policy—Expect That Little Navy Men Will Be Disarmed of the Secretary's Support.

Washington, July 28.—That the secretary of the navy will submit to congress at the coming session the most comprehensive program for additions to the fleet ever forwarded to that body now appears to be assured. Administration officials say there can no longer be any doubt that President Wilson has decided to give his support to a more progressive policy in the upbuilding of the navy along modern lines. This means, in the opinion of naval authorities, that the general board of the navy, the advisory council created by the head of the department, and Secretary Daniels will cooperate in the formation of a well balanced program that will call for the construction of more battle ships, scouts, repair ships and other subsidiaries so urgently required by modern naval warfare.

All Naval Bodies to Agree.

Heretofore the secretary of the navy has recommended a building program without regard to the findings of the general board. Under the recent reorganization of the department it is regarded highly probable that all the agencies within the service will agree on a program that will be submitted to congress with the support of the secretary, thus disarming the little navy men, who in the past have quoted the head of the department as the principal witness in opposition to additions to the fleet proposed by the general board.

Admiral Benson, the new chief of operations is the principal military advisor of the executive head of the department. He is likewise a member of the general board and a member of the advisory council. It is expected that if Admiral Benson has his way only one naval program will be submitted to congress this winter by the navy department instead of two as in former years. Under such circumstances, with the support of the president, naval officials are hopeful that congress will adopt this winter a well thought out naval military policy fashioned by the experts of the service.

The subject of national defense so far as it affects the navy was considered at a meeting of the general board. All members of the board except Admiral Dewey were present. The discussion touched only briefly upon the prospective building program. It was agreed that before the board gave serious consideration to a naval program this year it should await intelligence from the naval observers' board.

SUES BROTHER OF OIL KING

Woman Accuses Frank Rockefeller of Swindle and Assault.

Cleveland, O., July 28.—Frank Rockefeller, brother of the oil king, was sued for more than $100,000 damages by Mrs. Bertha M. Leland, a Montreal widow, who charges that he defrauded her of $10,000 in a stock deal and later beat her and caused her arrest falsely when she pleaded with him to return her money.

Mrs. Leland formerly was a cashier in a Cleveland restaurant. Rockefeller made a general denial of the woman's charges and characterized the suit as a "villainous proceeding."

NASHVILLE GETS RECEIVER

Court Suspends Mayor and Aids After Naming New City Head.

Nashville, Tenn., July 28.—Chancellor Allison appointed Robert Vaughn as receiver for the City of Nashville.

Soon afterward Judge Matthews of the circuit court, in response to proceedings under Tennessee's "ouster law," suspended from office Mayor Hilary E. Howse and Commissioners Robert Elliott and Lyle Andrews. The receiver is a master in chancery.

The Telegraph has employed the services of Geo. Murray as country circulator. John Thome still retains his position as solicitor and circulator for this paper.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

DIXON PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW HOW TO READ AND HEED THEM.

Disordered kidneys give many signals of distress.

The secretions may be dark, contain sediment.

Passages are sometimes frequent, scanty, painful.

Backache is often present day and night.

Headaches and dizzy spells may occur.

Weakened kidneys should receive help.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys, backache and urinary disorders.

Dixon evidence proves their worth.

Mrs. I. L. Shank, 1113 W. Seventh street, Dixon, says: "I had a severe pain in the small of my back and kidneys. It was hard for me to lift anything and after I stooped, I could scarcely straighten up again."

I also had dizzy spells and headaches, was constantly languid and felt tired out. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co's Drug Store and they helped me from the start. Three boxes removed the trouble. Another of my family has also been helped by Doan's Kidney Pills."

Positive and Comparative.

In the lobby of a Cincinnati hotel, during an educational convention, one school man approached another and, by way of introducing himself, said: "I'm Becker."

"That's good," replied the man addressed, taking the proffered hand. "I'm more so."

"You're what?" asked the first speaker.

"I say I'm more so," repeated the second.

"What do you mean by that?"

"Why, you say you are Becker."

"Yes, I am. My name is Becker."

WILSON IS PREPARING NEW MOVE IN MEXICO

President Completes Formulation of Announcement.

Cornish, N. H., July 28.—President Wilson is at work preparing the promised announcement of the move this government is to take in pursuance of his new Mexican policy. The president shut himself in his study at Harklenden house and wrote rapidly on his typewriter for about half an hour. It was the same typewriter on which he wrote the first note to Germany regarding the sinking of the Lusitania and others of the most important state papers of his administration. It was understood that he practically had completed the formulation of the announcement which Secretary of State Lansing indicated at Washington is to be made in a few days.

The president is known to have two radically different courses under consideration. One of these provides for the abandonment of further efforts to prevail upon the Mexican leaders to establish peace among themselves. The first step in the pursuance of this policy would be the restoration of the embargo on shipments of arms and war munitions into Mexico which he lifted nearly two years ago in his determination to drive the dictator, Huerta, from control at Mexico City. The other course which one of the president's chief official advisers on Mexican affairs has urged consistently, is that a conference of Mexican leaders be called by the United States government in an effort to have them agree upon a provisional president to be recognized by the United States.

NINE TRAWLERS ARE SUNK

German Submarines Making War on Fishermen of Britain.

London, July 28.—Apparently determined to demoralize the British fish supply as much as possible, two German submarines have appeared suddenly among the fishing fleet off the north coast of Scotland and by shell fire sunk nine trawlers—the Rosalyn, Celtic, Cydorna, Cadwell, Strathmore, Honoria, Cassio, Hermonie and Sutton.

In spite of a vigorous shell fire, the crews of fishermen escaped without injury, although the men of the Honoria and the Sutton drifted in their open boats forty-five hours before being picked up.

EIGHT MINERS KILLED; EIGHT MORE WILL DIE

Many Others Seriously Hurt at Christopher, Ill.

Christopher, Ill., July 28.—Eight are known to be dead, eight more are expected to die, and fourteen men were injured, several perhaps fatally, when an explosion from an undetermined cause trapped 115 miners in the north-west entry mine No. 1 of the United Coal Mining company here.

The killed and injured were burned. No fall of slate or coal followed the explosion. In the mine at the time were 275 miners. Four other entries were not affected by the explosion.

Relief work was organized hard on the heels of the tremendous blast that warned mine officials of the accident. Mine cars were ordered from Herrin and Benton, seven miles away. The crew of the car stationed at the latter place rushed to the scene in six automobiles, bringing oxygen helmets and first aid supplies.

Virtually all the 100 inhabitants of the city and mining employees adjoining crowded to the entrance of the mines and work was retarded. Officials of the mining company refused to give out any information and this rendered the crowds impatient.
